

	Half term 1	Half term 2	Half Term 3	Half Term 4	Half term 5	Half term 6
Content title - Tudors	Crime and Deviance		Beliefs in Society		Theory and Methods
Purpose of the scheme
Pre read (suggested)
Key knowledge and skills	Knowledge: Functionalism. Interactionism, Marxism, Realist, gender, ethnicity, media representations of crime and the global impact of crime. Skills: Analysis and application of the relevant sociological studies. Evaluation of the strength and limitations of these studies.		Knowledge: Understand arguments for and against secularisation and social change. To analyse and evaluate the significance of globalisation on religious belief and practice. Evaluate the role of ideology and belief systems. Skills: Analysis, application and evaluation. Evaluate social change, secularisation, ideology by comparing and contrasting sociological viewpoints.		Knowledge: Assess concepts of modernity and post modernity. Assess the extent to which Sociology can be regarded as a science. Debates about subjectivity, objectivity and value freedom. Assess the relationship between Sociology and social policy Skills: Application, analysis and evaluation of a range of sources, data and perspectives.
Key words/ vocabulary	Boundary maintenance, subcultural theory, hierarchy, deviance amplification, strain theory, corporate crime, underclass, chivalry thesis, patriarchal control, liberation thesis, relative deprivation, green criminology, situational crime prevention.		Church, sect, denomination, cult, new age movement, secularisation, disengagement, religious pluralism, desacralisation, rationalisation, spiritual revolution, globalisation, relativism, fundamentalism, open and closed belief system, social change, patriarchy, PWESC.		Positivism, interpretivism, reliability, validity, representativeness, ethical, value free, primary and secondary data, qualitative and quantitative data, falsification, paradigm, exploitation, alienation, ethnomethodology, symbolic interaction, social vs sociological problem.
Exam board
End point
Assessment method	Progress check: weekly multiple-choice content quiz and exam questions from Paper 3 Crime and Deviance.		Progress check: weekly multiple-choice content quiz and exam questions from Paper 2 Beliefs in society.		Progress check: weekly multiple-choice content quiz and exam questions from Paper 1 and 2.
Wider reading / links / research	Links to criminology and law, sharing case studies.		Link to PER for background knowledge of churches and denominations.		Apply research methods to psychological, PER and natural sciences case studies and theory.
Careers links						